RECOMMENDED READING FOR PARENTS

Understanding Dyslexia (Introductory)

General Understanding Dyslexia (Intermediate)

Supporting the Dyslexic Student

Personal Stories about Learning Disabilities in Children

Learning Disabilities and the Law

Wright, P. W. D., & Wright, P. D. Wrightslaw: From emotions to advocacy, the special education survival guide (2nd ed.). Hartfield, VA: Harbor House Law Press, Inc.
Parenting, Children, and Learning Differences

Social/Emotional Concerns

Understanding Language and Cognitive Development

Guidance About Assessment

Websites for Advocacy and Information

www.interdys.org
www.wrightslaw.com
www.schwablearning.org
www.dickmanalliance.com
www.ldonline.org
www.nichcy.org
www.idea.ed.gov

The International Dyslexia Association (IDA) is pleased to recommend these reading materials, but it is not IDA’s policy to endorse any specific author, program, product, company, or instructional material, and the opinions of the books’ authors are not necessarily the opinions of IDA.