WHEREAS, the Class of 2020 has faced more adversity than anyone could have ever imagined; and

WHEREAS, the Class of 2020 adjusted to living in an uncomfortable new reality, while maintaining a strong focus on academics; and

WHEREAS, the Class of 2020 was impacted by social distancing measures and could not participate in many school activities and events, including annual senior traditions; and

WHEREAS, the Class of 2020 experienced the significant transition of moving from a physical classroom to a virtual one; and

WHEREAS, the Class of 2020, despite the many unique challenges, continued to work hard and stay focused in order to successfully graduate from high school; and

WHEREAS, the Class of 2020 should be commended for their resiliency and perseverance as well as their unwavering commitment to academic excellence.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ERIC JOHNSON, Mayor of the City of Dallas, do hereby proclaim that May 24 – 30, 2020 be recognized as

CELEBRATE 2020 SENIORS WEEK in Dallas, TX.

Mayor Eric Johnson